PRO SPORTS MVP
MARKETING VENTURES & PROMOTIONS

muggsy bogues

Guard

The Word on Bogues

"…has to be considered one of the better point guards of his time."

Sports Illustrated

"…one of the most amazing profiles of courage in all of sports; he beat the odds because he refused to be denied."

Winston Salem-Journal

–

Personal Information

Height: 5-3
Weight: 145
Position: Guard
College: Wake Forest

Birthdate: January 9, 1965
Birthplace: Baltimore, Maryland
Residence: Charlotte, North Carolina
Entered NBA: 1987 / Years Pro: 14

On The Court

- At 5'3", was the shortest player in NBA history
- 2001, Traded to the New York Knicks, 2/22
- Ranks as the league's all-time leader in assist-to-turnover ratio
- 1999-2000, Tied his career high with 24 points vs. Boston (3/3)
- 1999. Signed by the Toronto Raptors as a free agent (9/23)
- 1997-98, Recorded his 6,000th assist, 2,000th rebound and 1,200th steal
- 1997, Traded to the Golden State Warriors (11/7)
- 1994-95, Averaged a career-best 11.1 ppg
- 1994-95, Ranked 5th in the NBA in assists, averaging 8.7 per game
- 1991-92, Nabbed a career best 170 steals
- 1989-90, Tallied career best 867 assists
- 1989, In his first season with Charlotte, set personal best and Hornets' all-time single game assist mark of 19
- Led the Hornets in assists for the first 7 years of the franchise's existence
- Is the Hornets' all-time leader in minutes played, steals and assists
- 1988, Selected by the Charlotte Hornets in the NBA expansion draft
- 1987, Selected by Washington in the first round (12th pick overall) of the NBA Draft
- Finished his college career as the ACC's all-time leader in assists and steals
- 1983, Named MVP of undefeated Dunbar High School (Baltimore, MD) team that won national championship

Personal

- Had his jersey (#14) retired at Wake Forest University
- Two-time Belk/WBTV Hornets Player of the Year
- 1994, Hosted Muggsy Bogues All-Star Classic basketball game, benefiting Baltimore Reads
- 1986-87, Won the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award as nation's top college player under six feet tall